Examiner's Reasons for Allowance

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The application is allowable for the reasons set forth on pages 8-10 of the of Appellant's brief, the claimed invention requires wirelessly communication between transmitter and receiver (or interpreted between a fixed base station and moving base station) whereas the closest prior art requires a wireline connection between a fixed base station and moving base station and wherein both base stations communicate wireless with a mobile station which does not teach or suggest the claimed invention.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion
